Youth Leader BootCamp

Asheboro, NC - Calling all youth pastors, youth leaders and individuals serving in youth ministries! Does it feel like you are constantly looking for ministry resources for your “toolbox”? Do you need help engaging with volunteers and parents? Would you benefit from having a network of other youth leaders you can lean on and learn from? If so, listen up!

You are invited to attend the first annual Youth Leader BootCamp on Saturday, January 27 at Caraway Conference and Retreat Center in Asheboro. BootCamp will be led by seasoned youth pastors and leaders from across several denominations in Randolph County with the goal of encouraging and equipping youth leaders and all those serving in youth ministries.

BootCamp will include opening and closing sessions, multiple breakout times, and opportunities for networking, as well as a light breakfast and lunch. Check-in will begin at 8:30 a.m. and the event will conclude at 2:30 p.m. A draft agenda for the day is as follows:

Opening Rally:

Hervenly Jean, Sunset Avenue Church of God (COG)

Survival Session 1:

Developing and working in Small Groups, led by Clay Moore, Journey Church
Events, Fundraisers, and Budgets - Hervenly Jean, Sunset Avenue COG
Burnout: Faithful not successful – Mark Hall, First Baptist Asheboro (FBCA)

Survival Session 2:

Fun 2 Teach, led by Mark Moore, Camp Caraway

Teaching Tools, Bible Studies, Content/Resources - Aaron Littell, FBCA

Social Media: Friend or Foe – JT Harper, Rushwood Church

Survival Session 3:

Parent Engagement 2.0 and Volunteers, led by Mark Hall, FBCA

Administration and Ethics, led by Mark Wilburn, Balfour Baptist Church

Multiethnic ministry - Hervenly Jean, Sunset Avenue COG

Closing Rally:

Mark Moore, Camp Caraway
