UPCOMING EVENTS

SENIOR TRAVELERS

Thursday, March 15 we will travel to Charlotte, NC to tour the Billy Graham Library. The bus will leave the back of the church at 8:30 am. We will have lunch in the library at "Graham Brothers Dairy Bar". We expect to return back by 4:00 pm. Call Eulalie by Monday, March 12 for reservations.

The trip to Guilford Technical College Culinary School has been postponed to the fall.

LIVE EMBERS

Thursday, March 22 the Live Embers will meet at 6:00 pm in the fellowship hall for a meal and meeting. A speaker from Hospice of Randolph County will discuss their resources and services. Call Eulalie or the church office by Monday, March 12 to make your reservations.

Dear First Baptist Knitters,

My daddy, Thurman Coltrane, was given a beautiful prayer shawl while an inpatient at Randolph Health. We took it to Clapp's where he is currently receiving rehab therapy. The warmth and softness of the blanket are gentle reminders of your love and God's love. Thank you for this wonderful ministry and extension of God's love.

Lisa Alley

The only survivor of a shipwreck washed up on a small uninhabited island. He cried out to God to save him and every day he scanned the horizon for help, but none seemed forthcoming. Exhausted, he eventually managed to build a rough hut and put his few possessions in it. But then one day, after hunting for food, he arrived home to find his little hut in flames, the smoke rolling up to the sky. The worst had happened; he was stung with grief. Early the next day, though, a ship drew near the island and rescued him. "How did you know I was here?" he asked the crew. "We saw your smoke signal," they replied. Though it may not seem so now, your present difficulty may be instrumental to your future happiness.

Joyful Singers

10th Anniversary Luncheon

Tuesday, February 13

Sandy Kilby took over the senior choir in 2008. At first she declined since she had no experience directing, however, after praying she felt it was Gods calling. At that time, their were 13 members who visited local assisted living facilities to sing hymns.

With a new director, the members chose a name, thus Joyful Singers was born. By May the group numbered 22 and continued to grow. Matching shirts were purchased to identify the group as they traveled.

Now the group has 35 members, singing at 14 different places twice a year. These places include local Assisted Living, Alzheimer’s Units and StayWell facilities. They also travel to Ramseur, Biscoe and Pleasant Garden facilities. Sandy thoroughly enjoys the Joyful Singers, their ministry and their friendship.
