SENIOR TRAVELERS TRIP

Perry Lowe Orchards

Faye McDaniel & Deborah Wood

Wanda, Mary, Sharon & Doris enjoyed the fall decor at the Home & Garden Shop.

Twelve travelers had a beautiful fall day traveling to the mountains for lunch and apple shopping. Perry Lowe Orchards, a sixth generation orchard in Moravian Falls, had a large variety of apples to choose from at their road side Apple House - great prices too! We were all surprised when a fellow approached us in the Apple House and introduced himself as Martha Philpott's brother who lives in Lenore, NC - small world! Lunch in North Wilkesboro at Hadley's Restaurant was tasty, especially the blackberry cobbler. After a quick visit to the Home and Garden shop across the street, a content group headed home with thoughts of making apple pie, cobbler, cake, apple butter, and apple sauce.

90+ Club

Members of the 90+ Club had lunch at the home of Eulalie Phillips on September 30. With several members out of town, only five were able to attend: Lorene Haywood, Ben Mobley, Sam Furr, Rebecca Chapman, (not pictured) and Margaret Washington. Hostesses were Martha Hardin, Mary Louise Rich and Eulalie Phillips. Guests included Janice Haywood, Cathy and Ernest Greene. After a delicious, satisfying meal, the group had a vibrant discussion, sharing the traits and characteristics they believed to have received from their parents.
