In Memory of Cathy Holland Greene

A life that touches others goes on forever.

Before moving to Asheboro Cathy and Ernest Greene were managers of a retirement community, first in Wilmington, then in Lexington (SC), then back to Wilmington where they worked just under two years before retiring. Volunteering became their "new profession" driving over 150 miles each way to give their time at Caraway Conference Center. A weekend spent in town brought them to worship service at FBC. The Missions program at FBC convinced them to move to Asheboro where they both became involved members in December of 2004.

Cathy did not lose her love for Senior Adults; she joined the church staff as Senior Adult Leader and served in this capacity from 2007 to 2013. Cathy brought much joy and comfort to church members who were homebound and hospitalized. She continued to visit even after leaving the staff position. She will be greatly missed by us all and we thank our Lord for the time He gave us with her here on earth. To God be the glory for a life well lived that touched the hearts of many. Cathy, we will see you in heaven!

Those who have served well gain an excellent standing and great assurance in their faith in Christ Jesus. ~ 1 Timothy 3:13
