Mrs. Hanes' Bakery

On Thursday, March 23, The Senior Travelers enjoyed a day together in Clemmons, NC. Lunch at a local restaurant, Time to Eat, filled our stomachs, but we left room to sample all six varieties of Moravian cookies on our tour of Mrs. Hanes Bakery.

We were treated to an hour tour that gave us a look at the congenial atmosphere of a small family business that ships its product all around the world. Mrs. Hanes is the seventh generation of Moravian cookie makers in her family. What is unique about this bakery and what makes the quality so good is that the dough is hand-rolled, the cookies are hand-cut, and every tin is hand-packed by an individual employee.

SENIOR TRIPS

Trindale Community Church—Saturday, April 15 we are planning on attending an Easter drama at Trindale Community Church in Archdale. The bus will leave at 4:00 pm, and stop at the Pioneer restaurant in Archdale for dinner before attending the 7:00 pm presentation. We will arrive back in Asheboro at 9:30 pm. There is no cost for the drama, but the church will take up a love offering. Call Eulalie at 626-2443 by April 10 to make your reservation.

NarrowWay Theater, Ft. Mill, SC—Reservations for the presentation of “Not Just Another Love Story” on Saturday, May 20 are closed. If you have not paid for your reservation, please call Eulalie at 626-2443.

SENIOR EVENTS

LIVE EMBERS will meet on Thursday, April 27 at 6:00 pm in the fellowship hall.

90+CLUB met for a luncheon at the Crossroad Community Clubhouse on March 4. The following members were present: Rebecca Chapman, Betty LaGrange, Margaret Wright, Willis McBride, Sam Furr, Ben Mobley, Margaret Washington, Helen Caviness and permanent guest, Cathy Greene. Absent due to illness were Ken Bauer, Lorene Haywood and Catherine Ingold. Martha Hardin, who is our chef extraordinaire, was assisted by server Julia Weathers, Linda Carol Thrift and Eulalie Phillips. Tables were decorated with animal figurines and wild animal prints. Lunch included roast “beast”, potatoes, carrots, salad, rolls and a layered creamy jello dessert. Members shared what animal they thought mirrored their personalities and enjoyed the jokes told by Betty and Helen. For several years, Catherine Ingold said she hoped she lived to 90 to that she could attend the 90+ Club luncheons. She and Ben Mobley whose 90th birthdays are this year, were invited to the last luncheon of 2016. We are so glad Catherine was able to join us at that time before she took ill and went home to the Lord on March 17 of this year. We will miss her and her beautiful smile.

After the items were prayed over during Wednesday Night Meal, the Knitting/Crocheting Group sent: ten baby hats and one pair of baby booties to Your Choice Randolph, four crocheted prayer shawls to Randolph Hospice and eight prayer shawls to Randolph Hospital. These items will be distributed at these facilities, as needed. In addition, one prayer shawl was taken to Catherine Ingold at Clapp’s Nursing Facility. It was placed on her by two First Baptist members who visited and prayed for her the afternoon before she passed away.
